

Archangel

October, 2017

Dear Saint Mike's "care-givers" with "Help-along" Harriette, who have privileged me and Gerry to join your company on the Pilgrims' Road to the Kingdom:

You have, so many of you, gifted us with your regard, your trust, your appalling kindness and care, and your prayer support (which we have felt physically) along the way of my "knee-jerk" episode, that we are at a loss for words to describe our sense of blessing. We miss you all and all the collective insanity that makes St. Mike's what it is! Of course, we may be victims of "cabin fever" by now...No we miss you for sure! We can't wait to be "loosed upon you" once again by My Doc. We'll see him tomorrow and begin to get a look at the road through "rehab". Meanwhile, God Bless You and Keep You...out of too much trouble until we can get back there.

Love,
Jim and Gerry+

Reminder

With the arrival of Fall come groups that are meeting at the church for the first time or returning groups. We welcome all who meet at the church and encourage you to contact the office with concerns or needs. We will try to help when we can.

Also, please remember it is important that you make sure the church doors are locked when leaving the building after a meeting, etc. Thanks for helping keep our building secure.
